

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN

LONGHORN CENTER for Civic Engagement

UNITED to SERVE

United to Serve is a system-wide initiative of The University of Texas to unite all of the campuses in service. Every spring since 2004, students, administrators, faculty, and staff across the 15 system institutions have volunteered their time and talents for service projects from health fairs to senior service programs to neighborhood clean-ups coordinated for United to Serve week.

This year, a week of reflection on service will be held March 18–22, during which the new Longhorn Center for Civic Engagement (LCCE) will host United to Serve: Celebrating Service-Learning and Civic Engagement.

Please join us for a week of events and help us celebrate the spirit of service at The University of Texas at Austin.

Monday, March 18, 1–3 p.m.

Campus-wide Open House

Longhorn Center for Civic Engagement
Student Services Building, 4th Floor (SSB 4.400)
100 W. Dean Keeton St.

Tuesday, March 19, 11:45 a.m.–12:45 p.m.

Faculty Open House

M Station Apartments
2906 E. MLK Jr. Blvd, Austin, TX, 78702
Hosted by the Foundation Communities
(Please contact the LCCE at (512) 471-6161 if you are interested in attending.)

Wednesday, March 20, 1–5 p.m.

Cultivating Effective University-Community Engagement

A workshop presented by the Opportunity Forum and the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement
UT School of Social Work, Utopia Theater
1925 San Jacinto Blvd.

Thursday, March 21, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Campus-wide Service Reflection and Information Session

Gregory Plaza, 2101 Speedway

Saturday, March 23 • This is an all-day event!

Service Events in Dove Springs

Undertaken as part of The Project 2013.

For more information or to register go to:

www.utproject.org

